Player

DINO CICCARELLI

A native of Sarnia, Ontario, Dino Ciccarelli played four seasons for the London Knights setting a team record for goals with 72 in 1977-78. An undrafted free agent, he made his debut with the Minnesota North Stars in 1980-81, played nine seasons with the Stars, leading the team in scoring five times. Overall, he played 19 NHL seasons with five teams recording 608 goals and 592 assists in 1,232 games played.

"This is a tremendous honour that I will cherish for the rest of my life," said Ciccarelli. "I really appreciate the support of my coaches, the fans and most importantly my family throughout my 19 year career."

Player

CAMMI GRANATO

Cammi Granato was ECAC Player of the Year three consecutive seasons from 1991 - 93, while playing for Providence College. She then played in Canada for the Concordia Stingers, helping that team to three Quebec titles. Granato was also a 15-year member of the U.S. Women's National Team beginning in 1990 and led Team USA to the gold medal in the 1998 Winter Olympics.

"I dreamed of being in the NHL my entire life and this certainly makes up for those dreams," said Granato. "Being amongst the first women to play at college and later at the Olympics, it certainly was worthwhile being a hockey pioneer."

Player

ANGELA
JAMES

Toronto native Angela James starred in the 1970s and early 1980s in the Central Ontario Women's League and was the league's leading scorer for eight seasons and MVP on six occasions. A medallist in 12 National Championships, she was MVP in eight of them. Angela has also won four world championship gold medals (1990, 1992, 1994 and 1997).

"On behalf of everyone in women's hockey, I am truly honoured," said James. "As a kid I went to the Hall and was in awe of those who had been inducted. I am delighted to be able to join them."

Builder

JIM DEVELLANO

Born and raised in Toronto, Jim was a member of the Islanders' family for three consecutive Stanley Cup championships and then after joining the Red Wings in 1982, was instrumental in helping the team win six Presidents' Trophies, fifteen division championships, nine Western Conference championships and the Stanley Cup championship on four occasions.

"I'd like to thank the Selection Committee for naming me," said Devellano. "This game is all about the people and since Lynn Patrick gave me my first break I've been fortunate to be associated with great people."

Builder

DARYL "DOC"
SEAMAN

Daryl "Doc" Seaman was born in Rouleau, Saskatchewan and became one of Alberta's most successful oilmen. Besides bringing the Flames to Calgary as one of the original owners, he was a key player in building the Saddledome and bringing the 1988 Olympic Winter Games to Calgary. He was a strong supporter of Hockey Canada's grass roots development programs as well as Hockey Hall of Fame's founding principals of "Entertainment, Education and Excellence".

Share the excitement as the Canada Legends take on the USA Legends during the Source for Sports® Hockey Hall of Fame Legends Classic in Toronto.

The Source for Sports® Hockey Hall of Fame Legends Classic, Canada vs USA - will be played in Toronto on Sunday, November 7, 2010 (2:00 PM) at Air Canada Centre as part of the Hockey Hall of Fame Induction Weekend/Celebration.

The Source for Sports® Hockey Hall of Fame Legends Classic pays tribute to its newest Inductees and celebrates the success of past Olympics and the 2010 Winter Olympics when Canada won Gold and the USA won Silver in both men's and women's hockey.

It will showcase an exciting entertainment packed game including a live pre-game and half-time Show by Honeymoon Suite and Special Guest Alan Frew of Glass Tiger.

The Canada vs USA Legends match-up will captivate the memories of great hockey players from the past who played in the NHL, at Olympics and internationally. Their technical skills, diversification on the ice, speed and physical toughness lifted the game to new heights.

Don't miss this game—relive the players and plays of a lifetime!
